For travel by POV or Company provided vehicle, travel shall not exceed twelve (12) hours in a twenty-four (24) hour period. Travel time is considered time worked for the purpose of computing overtime.

- 18.01 "Grievances" shall mean and be limited to disputes or difference(s) between the Company and the Union, or employees so represented, with respect to the interpretation or application of any specific provision of this Agreement. Both parties agree to use their best efforts, including informal meetings involving Management, Supervision, Shop Steward, and the Grievant, to resolve matters without resorting to the grievance procedure except that any such meetings shall not extend the time limits set forth in this Article. In the event such informal methods do not resolve the grievance, all grievances shall be reduced to writing and processed in accordance with the following steps:

All grievances beyond Step one involving employee claims shall be in writing on grievance forms and shall be signed by all employees claiming rights there under.

In an effort to adjust employee grievances by mutual agreement, they shall be presented in the following order and within the following time limits;

a) STEP ONE

The employee(s), with their Steward if available, shall promptly bring a grievance to their supervisor or designee. In the event an employee is unavoidably absent due to illness or injury or unavailable due to vacation or other approved reasons, the employee's Union representative may bring the grievance to the supervisor. If such grievance is not settled within five (5) working days, then:

b) STEP TWO

A written grievance must be signed by the Steward and set forth a statement of grievance and the article or section of the agreement which is claimed to have been violated, and taken up by the Shop Steward with the Site Manager or his designee, and a meeting will be scheduled within five (5) subsequent working days. If no agreement has been reached within ten (10) working days, the grievance may be moved to Step Three.

c) STEP THREE

The Company's Senior Director of Labor Relations or designee, and the Business Representative of the Union or his designee shall meet in person or by telephone within ten (10) working days after receipt of the grievance into a third step. A written reply from the Company will be given to the Business Representative or his designee within fourteen (14) working days after the meeting. If no agreement has been reached within fourteen (14) working days, either party may submit the grievance or dispute to arbitration as covered in the Article 19.00.

- 18.02 All settlements must be consistent with the terms and conditions of the Agreement. Time limits may be extended by mutual agreements of both parties.

Any aggrieved employee and Union representative shall have the right to be present at any stage of the grievance procedure in which the grievance is being considered. No employee may leave the job, take up, or settle a grievance without requesting permission from the immediate supervisor. Such permission will be granted provided it does not retard or interfere with operations or create a hazardous condition. If permission cannot be granted, time limits will be waived until permission is granted. Witnesses called by either party may attend the grievance meeting at any step, subject to the same provisions above outlined for attendance of an aggrieved employee

In cases involving suspension or discharge, Step One will be waived, and the matter taken up with the Site Manager or his designee within five (5) working days following such action by the Company.

18.03 POLICY GRIEVANCES

It is understood that the Chief Steward may file grievances on behalf of the Union's interests under this agreement. Therefore, if a grievance pertains to the Company's interpretation of the intent and purpose of the application of a specific article and section of this agreement, the grievance may be filed by the Chief Steward on behalf of the Union. Further, if a grievance relates to policy and affects numerous employees, the grievance shall be consolidated and filed by the Chief Steward on behalf of a group of employees. Otherwise, grievances shall be filed and signed by the employee involved or affected.

- 18.04 Authorized Stewards shall have the right to examine time sheets and other records pertaining to the computation of compensation of any individual or individuals whose pay is in dispute or other records pertaining to a specific grievance. Compensation will be paid for reasonable time spent discussing or investigating grievances during the Shop Steward's normal work schedules.

19.00 – ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

- 19.01 The party choosing to arbitrate shall give written notice to the other party setting forth the matter to be arbitrated. If said notice is not served within the fourteen (14) day period specified in Step Three of Article 18.01 c), it shall be deemed that the grievance has been satisfactorily adjusted and the right to arbitrate waived.

19.02 In the event the Union or the Company submits a grievance to arbitration, a representative selected by the Union shall meet with a representative selected by the Company within five (5) workdays of receipt of the above notice and attempt to agree on an arbitrator. In the event the parties cannot agree on an arbitrator within five (5) working days, the parties will petition the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for a panel of seven (7) arbitrators.

In the latter case, the petitioner has the first right to strike a name; the other party shall then strike a name. This procedure shall continue alternately until one name remains.

19.03 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on all parties. However, the arbitrator shall not have jurisdiction or authority to add to, subtract from, modify or in any way change the provisions of this agreement. The expense and fees of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by both parties.

20.06 The starting and stopping times of the various shifts will be as follows:

First Shift	0700 to 1530	Monday through Friday

Should the employee decline, the next senior qualified employee in that classification and shift presently at work will be offered the work, and this sequence will be followed until the required number is obtained. Should the required number not be obtained in a voluntary manner because all employees presently at work decline to work the overtime assignment, the Company shall assign the work to the qualified employee on the shift in the classification with the least seniority, and this employee shall perform the work assignment.
 - b) In those cases where it is predetermined that weekend overtime will be required, all qualified employees in the classification shall be offered the work by seniority, and if the required number cannot be obtained voluntarily, those employees with the least seniority will be required to perform the overtime.
- 21.05 For overtime work occurring at the end of a shift, the Company will provide two (2) hours' notice, when possible, of required overtime work.
- 21.06 For scheduled overtime work occurring on an employee's Saturday or Sunday, employees will be notified of such requirement by the end of their shift on Thursday preceding such scheduled overtime work.
